OPAC KIOSK
WALL MOUNTED

Libraries can use the power of touch screen kiosks for various activities including information dissemination. .

Kiosks provides library touch screen kiosks which can act as information providers for books using an OPAC - Online Public Access Catalog.

DETAILS:

- Kiosk has an inbuilt touchscreen keyboard and a physical keyboard with a tray for easy accessibility.

- It has an attractive enclosure to suit and enhance the library aesthetic.

- It can be integrated with existing Koha Library Management Software.

- The software installed on the OPAC Kiosk has a friendly interface, and the software can be integrated with the existing Koha Library Management Software installed in the library.

- The software has the option to be customized as per the requirements of the Library.

- The patron check station computer has the following configuration:-.

  Operating System supported Windows 10
  Supports all relevant operating systems of Windows platforms
  On showing the card to the RFID reader, the system shows student information like Student name, books under his account, and fine in his account;On taking the card out, the system will jump back to Koha OPAC..

- The RFID Smart ID card reader has the following features:-

  RFID Smart ID Card Reader – USB
  Supports both 13.56 MHz contactless and contact smart card technology.
  will be interactive with the existing ID cards.

SPECIFICATIONS:

Monitor	21.5" touch screen Monitor
Power consumption	150 to 200W
Connectors	2 USB; 12V 1A internal power output
External	• One button on/off • Network card [Ethernet]
Enclosure	Acrylic and/or metal
CPU	Intel i3
SDD	128GB
RAM	4GB